GOVERNOR

Dear Friends:

The roots of volunteerism extend deep into the rocks, bluffs and valleys of Missouri. As you review this annual report of the Missouri Community Service Commission, you will see exactly what I mean. Missourians are some of the most giving people on the planet. The report demonstrates that AmeriCorps is working in Missouri to build our communities. AmeriCorps members throughout the state serve as tutors in schools, assist at food banks, provide disaster relief, protect our streams and contribute other services in order to get things done for Missouri.

AmeriCorps Missouri is a means by which the Missouri Community Service Commission connects Missourians of all ages and backgrounds in an effort to improve unmet community needs through direct and tangible service. AmeriCorps Members give one to two years of their lives to address the most pressing needs in their communities. They reach out to their fellow citizens and recruit others to join them in their fight against illiteracy, poverty, crime, homelessness and other social problems. Members help change lifestyles and build healthy futures. These members see a society that has hope and they want to be a part of strengthening their own communities.

I invite you to review this annual report and learn how the Missouri Community Service Commission is helping people change the lives of those around them for the better.

Sincerely,

Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

The Missouri Community Service Commission was created by the Missouri Legislature in 1994 during the Carnahan administration.

The Missouri Community Service Commission is housed within the Missouri Department of Economic Development.

The Commission, by Statute, is composed of 15-25 commissioners appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate.

2010-2011 Portfolio of Programs

American Red Cross: Prevent, Prepare, Respond

This AmeriCorps program meets the needs of underserved people in the rural areas of Southern Missouri. Members work within specific counties to: recruit new disaster relief volunteers to tend to the needs of those displaced by natural or man-made disasters; teach life-saving skills such as CPR, First Aid, and Disaster Preparedness to their communities; and to strengthen relationships and partnerships with many disaster related organizations to improve the services delivered to those affected by disasters. Through this program, communities in Southern Missouri will be revitalized with a spirit of service to their neighbors, and will be better prepared when disaster strikes.

When not involved in disaster response, the ERT conducts community preparedness projects and undertakes natural resource stewardship projects to benefit the environment.

A TRIBUTE TO THE VOLUNTEERS

At 5:41 P.M. on May 22, 2011, an EF-5 tornado ripped through Cunningham Park and the greater Joplin area, leaving a path of death and destruction one mile wide by six miles long in its wake. Over 160 people perished in the storm. What immediately followed in staggering numbers and through personal accounts is "The Miracle of the Human Spirit."

The Miracle of the Human Spirit symbolizes the incredible outpouring of volunteers who have lifted Joplin out of the rubble. Countless volunteers from all walks of life have offered themselves to the Joplin effort without request, serving as a reminder of the overwhelming power of human generosity and the steadfast tenacity to rebuild the once broken city.

This tribute embodies the volunteers' determination through four rippling garden walls, representing Joplin's ongoing rescue, recovery, demolition, and rebirth. Several elements within the tribute - bronze artifacts, a mosaic of remnants, a volunteer statue, and the emblematic wristband - represent the volunteers' unprecedented response. Joplin and its residents are eternally grateful to those heroes.

Disaster Preparedness, Response and Relief

The Joplin tribute to the volunteers shows the amount of destruction still left for volunteers to clear out. AmeriCorps Members and other Members of National Service have been in Joplin since May 22, 2011 when the tornado hit.

EVENTS and SERVICE PROJECTS

An Annual Coat Drive is a service project held annually by the Commission beginning after Thanksgiving and continuing through MLK Day. Its purpose is to provide coats to those in need to help keep Missourians warm. The local Samaritan Center partners with the Commission and distributes the coats.

As you will see in the following section, this is only one of the many events/projects sponsored by the Commission throughout the year.

Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service

The Corporation for National and Community Service recognizes Martin Luther King Jr. Day as a Day ON not a Day OFF... A Day of Service. Programs across the state participated in different ways to support the ideals of Dr. King and to support a Day of Service. There were food drives, school revitalizations, energy efficiency information and supplies passed out, MLK Marches and programs as well as coat drives and children's programs. The state came together to truly make it a Day ON and not a Day OFF.

Missouri Service Day – South Lawn of Missouri State Capitol Building

This cross-stream event with Learn and Serve brought National Service together on the lawn of our State Capitol Building to hear messages about never giving up, building character through giving back and ALWAYS being service minded. This was the first portion of a three-part event held on April 28, 2011.

Life After AmeriCorps Training – Truman Hotel and Conference Center

After celebrating Service with other National Service entities, the AmeriCorps Members attended many sessions that focused on shaping their preparedness for "Life After AmeriCorps". Sessions on spotlighting Service in resumes' and interviews as well as graduate school, scholarships and utilizing their education award were presented to Members.

Annual Celebration of Service and Volunteerism – Truman Hotel and Conference Center

Following the "Life After AmeriCorps" training, Members had a networking dinner and attended the "Annual Celebration of Service and Volunteerism". Programs performed skits during the ceremony and engaged the audience in Espirit de Corps. Service awards, as well as High School Scholarships, were presented throughout the evening.

9-11 Day of Service and Remembrance & Shelter Training

The Corporation for National and Community Service recognizes September 11th as a Day of Service. The Missouri Community Service Commission held an all night shelter training that certified over 100 people across the state to be prepared to coordinate and operate a shelter in the event of a disaster. The following day a remembrance ceremony was held in the rotunda of the State Capitol. A family member of the first soldier killed in Iraq, a member of Task Force One and the Director of CERT all spoke to the audience. The Pipe and Drum Line from the Boone County Fire Department began and ended the ceremony with reverence.

Multi-State Commission Institute – St. Louis, Missouri

*The Missouri Community Service Commission hosted representatives of National Service from over 25 states in October. They worked in a collaborative effort to discuss public relations, disaster response, shared practices and other topics.
