MCSC'S MISSION

The Missouri Community Service Commission (MCSC) connects Missourians of all ages and backgrounds in an effort to improve unmet community needs through direct and tangible service. The MCSC serves as the administrator for AmeriCorps State funding in Missouri by awarding monetary grants and providing technical assistance and support to its sub-grantees.

MCSC'S VISION

To Strengthen Missouri Communities Through Volunteerism and Service

GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI

Dear Friends:

The roots of volunteerism extend deep into the rocks, bluffs and valleys of Missouri. As you review this annual report of the Missouri Community Service Commission, you will see exactly what I mean. Missourians are some of the most giving people on the planet. The report demonstrates that AmeriCorps is working in Missouri to build our communities. AmeriCorps members throughout the state serve as tutors in schools, assist at food banks, provide disaster relief, protect our streams and contribute other services in order to get things done for Missouri.

AmeriCorps Missouri is a means by which the Missouri Community Service Commission connects Missourians of all ages and backgrounds in an effort to improve unmet community needs through direct and tangible service. AmeriCorps Members give one to two years of their lives to address the most pressing needs in their communities. They reach out to their fellow citizens and recruit others to join them in their fight against illiteracy, poverty, crime, homelessness and other social problems. Members help change lifestyles and build healthy futures. These members see a society that has hope and they want to be a part of strengthening their own communities.

I invite you to review this annual report and learn how the Missouri Community Service Commission is helping people change the lives of those around them for the better.

Sincerely,

Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon

Since 1994, the Missouri Community Service Commission (MCSC) has worked diligently to help build an increased sense of community throughout our state. Our efforts have been directed toward encouraging volunteerism and providing AmeriCorps grants to local communities. Funding received from the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS) located in Washington, D.C. enables local communities to implement AmeriCorps programs. AmeriCorps members provide direct services that address the most pressing local needs. This type of collaboration is an essential link to address our common priorities and greatest needs.

AmeriCorps works “by getting things done”, expanding educational and economic opportunity, and building future leaders. On behalf of the Missouri Community Service Commission, our member programs, and the AmeriCorps members in our state, we hope you enjoy reviewing our annual report for 2014-2015.

If you have questions or comments, please contact us at 573-751-7488 or toll free at 877-210-7611.

On behalf of the Missouri Community Service Commission and our Missouri AmeriCorps Programs, we are honored to submit this annual report for 2014 - 2015. This past year has provided a number of challenges for our state commission and for our programs as they work "To Strengthen Missouri Communities through Volunteerism and Service". Through intentional work and partnerships that encourage and strengthen opportunities for volunteerism, AmeriCorps continues to address the most pressing local needs by getting things done.

Over the past year, we have seen firsthand the amazing impact that our programs make every day in people's lives. Our diverse groups of programs continue to provide opportunities in Disaster Services, Economic Opportunity, Education, Environmental Stewardship, Healthy Futures and for Veterans and Military Families. We are delighted to report to you that the Missouri Community Service Commission and our 20 programs across Missouri are thriving because of their commitment to service and collaboration. This past year, the Commission and the AmeriCorps programs have expanded working relationships with local, state and national organizations. These relationships have renewed efficiency of services provided to Missouri communities and maximized the impact of those services.

Through continued service at the local level, the Commission is confident that the legacy of National Service is carried on by connecting Missourians of all ages and backgrounds in an effort to improve unmet community needs through direct and tangible service. It is an honor to present this annual report and the contributions and investment it reflects. Thank you to all who have made it possible. We look forward to our future opportunities to work together.

Sincerely

"I've had the unique ability to start the change at the most focal point: with the children who can shape the future. My job is multifaceted. On the surface, I teach. I teach math; I teach reading; I teach writing. I teach students the skill they need to be successful in the future."

The AmeriCorps Pledge

I will get things done for America - to make our people safer, smarter and healthier.

I will bring Americans together to strengthen our communities.

Faced with apathy, I will take action.

Faced with conflict, I will seek common ground.

Faced with adversity, I will persevere.

I will carry this commitment with me this year and beyond.

I am an AmeriCorps Member and I will get things done.

AmeriCorps Values

Focus on Impact

To strengthen accountability, AmeriCorps programs demonstrate their impact using standard performance measures in the following focus areas: disaster services, economic opportunity, environmental stewardship, education, healthy futures, and veterans and military families.

Strengthening Nonprofits and the Volunteer Sector

AmeriCorps builds capacity, encourages local control and advances social innovation.

Expanding Educational Opportunity and Building Future Leaders

In addition to gaining career skills, AmeriCorps Members receive a Segal AmeriCorps Education Award that helps pay for college or pay back student loans.

Leveraging a Powerful Return on the Investment

AmeriCorps programs promote efficiency through volunteer mobilization and a funding model that utilizes public and private partnerships.

“During my service I can honestly say that I have played in the dirt, shared laughs and stories, and felt moved by the people around me. I have learned that what makes community is something so much bigger than one group or organization. At its heart, it is the day to day interactions and relationships we build with each other. Community grows from connections, one step, one conversation, one smile at a time until it connects us all in the web of humanity. As I think back on all those little moments, the web continues to expand. For all of this and more, I am humbled by the small part I play in the world and grateful for the opportunity.”

"Recently I have been lucky enough to return to project sites that had solidified my love for the Ozarks and its people in my first term of service. It's strange how fate delivered me a return trip to the area on the exact day a year after the tornado had changed so many lives. It reminded me that the things I do in this life do make a difference, even if I can't always see it. Would that everyone could see the tangible results of the ripples they leave in this pond we call life. I left Baxter Springs, again, with tears in my eyes."

"Today we took the LEAP students to ring bells for the Salvation Army. This project was to teach students what giving back to the community by volunteering was like. The students thoroughly enjoyed it. I actually had one student who went above and beyond what she was asked. This student was ringing the bell and caught a glimpse of an elderly woman that was all by herself trying to put groceries in her car. She [the student] then walked over to the woman and asked her if she could help! I told her that was an amazing thing to do. She [the student] responded, 'So this is what volunteering is about. It is fun to be a volunteer!' I thought that it was amazing to watch a young lady just want to help without being asked. These students are the leaders of the future and to watch them grow is most amazing sight."

traditional tutoring methods, Members also provide vision based tutoring to students who struggle with reading because of dyslexia or similar issues. AmeriCorps Members form an integral part of the district-wide Response to Intervention (RTI) program by providing services to nearly half of the student population.

A large, semi-transparent circular logo for AmeriCorps Missouri is centered in the background. The logo features a gear-like outer border. Inside the circle, the word "AMERICORPS" is written in a bold, sans-serif font along the top arc, and "MISSOURI" is written along the bottom arc. In the center of the logo is a stylized American flag with stars and stripes.

"I have found myself inspired to find the time in the future to volunteer with other organizations with the goal of helping others in a time of need. I appreciate the chance to be a part of AmeriCorps and take my pledge seriously in hopes of seeing fruit from that labor."

Mission: St. Louis VISTA Umbrella was named the Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service Awardee. The 2015 national day of service brought together 275 AmeriCorps VISTA Members and University of Missouri—St. Louis community members, who worked together to complete capital improvement projects helping the organizations maintain services to their community.

There were other service projects provided to the community as well. Examples of those projects are:

- Volunteers at Beyond Housing cleaned and painted the hallways and main room where neighborhood kids gather after school to complete homework.

- Volunteers at the Children's Home Society worked with children in the Developmental Disabilities Program creating crafts and reading to the children who live in the home.

- Volunteers at Lydia's House helped clean and organize the community center which provides safe and anonymous housing for those escaping domestic violence

This project reached 14 different agencies and non-profits throughout the St. Louis area. As a result, an estimated 2,000 Missourians were impacted.

The Rotary Club of Pulaski County was one of the organizations named as MCSC's Partners in Service. In 2014, the 42 member Rotary Club provided over 3,378 hours of service to the community. They also donated over $5,000 to support community projects. Through their partnership with the Waynesville—St. Robert Chamber of Commerce, both organizations provided 69 hours of training and presentations on the Choices program to 28 eighth grade classrooms. This program teaches students how choices they make today could impact future opportunities. The rotary club also donated $1,000 to cover part of the licensing fee to continue the program. Their relationship with Drury University provides 600 dictionaries to third graders each year in Pulaski County. In support of the Waynesville R-VI Snack in a Pack program, the Rotary Club donated $1,300 worth of peanut butter and jelly. This donation helped supply food to 315 students over the Christmas break. Additionally, 14 Rotary Club members volunteered 22 hours to package the food. The Rotary Club motto is "service above self", this motto has been motivation for the members to continue support to their community and to involve others by developing meaningful partnerships.

St. Louis Social Venture Partners (SVP) was another organization named MCSC's Partners in Service. SVP is a philanthropic program of the Regional Business Council. This provides financial and "hands-on" resources from reputable business executives, to help non-profit organizations become sustainable and to maintain long-term stability. The non-profit organizations that are selected provide educational programs to at-risk youth. In addition to building capacity in select non-profit organizations, SVP educates companies on effective philanthropy; thus increasing the spirit of volunteerism. Since 2001, SVP has given more than $1.9

SVP has given more than 1.9 million in grants and in-kind hours of volunteer and staff time to 21 area non-profits. The significance is that thousands of youth in the St. Louis area will continue to receive supportive services from non-profits that may not have been able to stay in operation. This is due to the oversight provided by SVP so service to the community can continue.
